

GREEK SPECIALITY RESTAURANT

"SCHLEIFMÜHLE BACCHUS" SINCE 1987

Owner A. Gonis

Aarstr. 35 - 65195 Wiesbaden - phone: 0611 / 407593

Dear guest

We are pleased to welcome you in our house and wish you nice hours of recreation and relaxation. The mill doesn't rattle anymore but the historical restaurant represents itself in the beauty of its timber-frame after expensive renovations.

The building can look back to a history of about 300 years. It was built as a water-mill used for grinding scythes and knives.

The mill itself was carried on by the small river Kesselbach, respectively by springs when the bed of the stream had dried out. The wheel of the mill could still be seen after 2nd World War but was fired later.

From the "Schleifmühle" people were carried by horses into the Taunus. When this restaurant still was located in the middle of free fields the horses were changed here at this post-station. In the mornings when the farmers came from the Taunus to go to the market they took their breakfast here. They brought their own meatsausages and paid only for knives, forks and drinks. On their way back when they had earned enough money on the market they ordered cutlets in the restaurant.

The time of the coaches has passed since a long time but the guests from nearby and far away like to drop into the "Schleifmühle Bacchus" to enjoy the best the kitchen and cellar can offer.

We wish you a pleasant stay and we would be pleased to welcome you again pretty soon.
